Curtis M. Loftis, Jr.

South Carolina Treasurer

Curtis M. Loftis, Jr. is South Carolina's chief financial officer. He is the custodian of more than $40 billion in State funds, including the state's five statutorily established pension funds.

He serves as Vice Chairman of the State Budget and Control Board, Chairman of the Board of Financial Institutions, and is a member of the South Carolina Retirement System Investment Commission which manages the $30 billion retirement fund's investments.

Mr. Loftis was elected State Treasurer in 2010 -- winning all 46 counties in his first bid for public office -- and was re-elected in 2014.

Mr. Loftis operates several businesses and is the founder and sole benefactor of the Saluda Charitable Foundation, a charity operating on three continents. He is a resident of West Columbia, SC and is a 1981 graduate of the University of South Carolina.
